PREFACE

In preparing a record of this old and historic family, time and money have not been spared to ascertain facts, and to this end a nation-wide research has been made with inquiries, and in many instances records have been searched in more than half the states of the Union. We have been able to find Sumners in seven states, but the ancestry and direct descendants of the branch we are tracing are confined to only four. The first trace we have of the Sumner family in America is contained in a book in which a speech was delivered on July 4, 1891, at Guilford Court House, Guilford, North Carolina, by Kemp P. Battle, LL.D., on the life of Brigadier General Jethro Sumner, who was a general in the Revolutionary War.

Mr. Battle says in part: "We know nothing of General Jethro Sumner's family in England, whence it came. It must have been one of respectability and substance, for we find his grandfather, William Sumner, becoming a freeholder of Virginia soon after William and Mary ousted from the English throne Mary's tyrannical father, James II."

With the above as a starting point, we have made an extensive search through the records of Virginia and North Carolina, and on account of destruction of many of the records, especially in Virginia, much of our information has come through family histories, with bits of information pieced together.

With the help of several genealogists who have made a minute search through the records of Virginia and North Carolina, and the valuable aid of the Institute of American Genealogy of Chicago, we feel sure that we have the record correct so far as lineage is concerned and the birth dates approximately correct.

It is not known when William Sumner came to Virginia; but we find him there in 1691, and the nearest we can get at his birth date was about 1668. Whether he had a family at that time we do not know; and whether his parents came with him or not is beyond our extensive search.

We find that William Sumner was the father of one girl and five boys. The name of the girl we have been unable to learn, but the boys were: Jethro, born about 1703; John, about 1705; James, about 1708; William, about 1710; and Dempsey, about 1712.

The presumption is that William Sumner accumulated some wealth, and as you will recall under the old English law the eldest son inherited his father's property, and Jethro being the oldest gave him the advantage from a financial standpoint.

Jethro was the father of Jethro, Jr., the famous general in the Revolutionary War, and William was the grandfather of General Jethro.

We now begin with the lineage of the family we are tracing. William Sumner of Virginia, born about 1668, was the first ancestor. John Sumner, second son of William, born about 1705, was the second ancestor. Joseph Sumner, son of John and grandson of William, born about 1734, was the third ancestor. Joseph Sumner, Jr., son of Joseph Sumner, Sr., and grandson of John and great-grandson of William, born in 1761, was the fourth ancestor.

Joseph Sumner, born in 1761, is the Joseph Sumner of Emanuel County, Ga., that we begin our history with absolute certainty as to lineage, birth, marriage, and death dates. We are not positive whether he was born in Georgia or North Carolina, but the records show that he lived in Georgia during the Revolutionary War. We give below a portion of the record:

Joseph Sumner, Sr., of Emanuel County, and wife, Mary Kight Sumner, and Bitahmy Kight, wife of a Revolutionary soldier, drew land in Emanuel County, Ga., for his services. Bitahmy Kight was probably the mother of Mary Kight Sumner and was a dependent of Joseph Sumner, Sr.

History of Sumner Family

Joseph Sumner, Sr., is found in a certified list of Revolutionary soldiers of Georgia in Knight's Roster, page 369.

His will, a copy of which will be given later, will be found in Book of Wills from 1827 through 1828, page 14, in the Ordinary's Office, Emanuel County, Ga. In the same book the will was probated January 8, 1828.

He was a taxpayer in Jefferson County, Georgia, in 1802.

Joseph Sumner, Sr., was born in 1761 and died in December, 1827.

Joseph Sumner, Sr., and Mary Kight were married in 1787.

Mary Kight Sumner was born in 1770 and died in 1840.

The following children were born to them:

John Chestnut Sumner, born in 1788; died —.

Mary Sumner, born in 1791, and died —.

Joseph Sumner, Jr., born September 15, 1793; died June 14, 1880.

Alexander Sumner, born in 1795; died in December, 1870.

Jesse Sumner was born in 1797; died —.

They married as follows:

John Chestnut Sumner and Mrs. — Flanders married —.

Mary Sumner and — Land married —.

Joseph Sumner, Jr., and Mahala Smith were married April 19, 1813.

Alexander Sumner and Nancy Flanders were married in 1815.

I give below a certificate which shows that any descendant of Joseph Sumner, Sr., is entitled to membership in the S. A. R. and D. A. R. The presentation of this book and the exhibit of this certificate will be sufficient.

GEORGIA, FULTON COUNTY.

I hereby certify that the following is contained in the Georgia Roster of the Revolution, page 369: "Joseph Sumner, 1827, Lottery, Emanuel County, Georgia." Also a later reprint of Land Lottery, 1827, published in 1928, on page 107 the following appears: "Joseph Sumner, Sr., Revolutionary soldier of Swains District, Emanuel County, drew Lot No. 10, Section 3."

Signed (Miss) HELEN PRESCOTT, Genealogist, Piedmont Park Apartment, Atlanta, Ga.

Here we leave the brothers and sister of Joseph Sumner, Sr., of Emanuel County and will tell in brief more of Joseph and Mary Kight Sumner, who were the great-grandparents of the writer.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF JOSEPH SUMNER, DECEASED.

STATE OF GEORGIA, EMANUEL COUNTY.

I, Joseph Sumner, of this State and County, do feel that my departure is at hand, and my soul I give to God, and my body to be buried, and I bequeath to my beloved wife my fattening hogs that is now up, and my corn and one bed and the furniture that belongs to it, and I bequeath to my beloved Alexander Sumner five cows and their calves, and all the rest of my property to be divided between my wife and my children after my decease, only one cow and her increase which I bequeath to —— Fosque.

I feel a disposition to cut off my daughter, Mary Land, without anything, only five dollars, but her children to have a child's part, and I do appoint my son, Joseph Sumner, to be executor for them to see that they are not wronged out of it, and I do appoint my son, John Chestnut Sumner, to be the executor of all my estate after my decease, till all is divided.

This is my will and testament.

November the third day, 1827. Signed and delivered in presence of us.

STATE OF GEORGIA, EMANUEL COUNTY.

I, W. A. Gray, Ordinary of said County and Clerk of the Court of Ordinary, do hereby certify that the within contains a true copy of the last will and testament of Joseph Sumner, as appears of record in Will Book "A," pages 13 and 14.

Given under my hand and seal of office this 25th day of January, 1932.

Signed, W. A. GRAY, Ordinary, Emanuel County, Ga.

We have already given you the names of the children of Joseph Sumner of Emanuel County, with dates of birth of all, and dates of death and marriage of some. Any descendant of John Chestnut Sumner, Mary Land, Alexander and Jesse Sumner can begin with the information we have given and trace your family down to the present with absolute certainty of the ancestry. If it is desired, I can perhaps help you, as my association with the Institute of American Genealogy of Chicago, of which I am now a member, gives me direct connection with most of the early families of America, and while it is not an easy task, most any family can be traced back to its early existence.

I now give you briefly the history of Joseph Sumner, Jr., and his wife, Mahala Smith Sumner, born and reared in Emanuel County, Georgia, where they were married April 19, 1813. They lived there until 1825, at which time they moved to Irwin County, near where Rebecca now is. About 1830 they moved to what is now known as the old Ross or Calvin Land place, about one mile west from Little River on the Albany and Irwinsky road.

They later settled the place known as the Joe M. Sumner place, three miles northeast from Sumner, Ga., where they lived to a ripe old age, died and were buried in the family cemetery.

This old couple reared a family of six boys and eight girls who lived to be grown and, with one exception, married and reared large families.

Much could be said of the early days of this family in Irwin County, which originally extended from Baker County, now Dougherty, on the west, Dooly on the north, Ware on the east, and the Florida line on the south, among which is the true story of Grandmother Sumner chasing a bear to Daniels Creek, half a mile away, when he carried her pet sow with a bell on to the swamps on a cold rainy night.

In the dark days of the Civil War the descendants of this loyal couple numbered six sons, eight sons-in-law, and thirteen grandsons who answered the roll as Georgia volunteers.

I have the muster roll of several of these Civil War soldiers and will be glad to assist any descendant who wishes to become a member of the United Daughters of the Confederacy.
